

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE ON JOBS, ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, AND THE ECONOMY

Briefing on International Trade and the California Economy: Do Tariffs Impact Local Economies?

Tuesday, December 10, 2019

10:00 to 11:00 am in Room 444 of the State Capitol.

Agenda

I. Opening Remarks

Toni Symonds, Chief Consultant with the Assembly Committee on Jobs, Economic Development, and the Economy

II. Overview of the California Trade-Based Economy

Bud Colligan, Senior Advisor for International Affairs and Trade with the Governor's Office of Business and Economic Development

III. Update on Tariffs and Other Current Trade Tensions

Jeff Weiss, Executive Director, California Association of Port Authorities

IV. Presentation on "By The Numbers: Jeopardizing the National Benefits of Trade Through America's Busiest Port Complex." (<https://www.portoflosangeles.org/tariffshur>)

David Libatique, Deputy Executive Director for Stakeholder Engagement with the Port of Los Angeles

V. Closing Comments

Toni Symonds, Chief Consultant with the Assembly Committee on Jobs, Economic Development, and the Economy